

Our Mission is to fund a cure for pancreatic cancer, offer hope for those in need, connect patients, families and communities, and to raise awareness of the necessity for a new direction of innovative research and treatment plan.

The Griffith Family Foundation is extremely excited to be joining with the Pennsylvania State University-Altoona Campus in hosting the 2nd Annual Pancreatic Symposium. We are pleased and honored to provide a panel of renowned doctors and special guests.

We ask that you join us or take part in our sponsorship opportunities as we host Jack Andraka, more often referred to as the “Thomas Edison of the 21st century, Dr. A. James Moser, Executive Director of the Institute for Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic Surgery at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Dr. Amer Zureikat, surgical oncologist in the Division of Gastrointestinal Surgical Oncology at UPMC Cancer Center, and Dr. Ralph McKibbin, gastroenterologist at Blair Gastroenterology Associates in Altoona. We are also excited to have Erin Willett, 2nd runner up on “The Voice”.

The GFF has opportunities for you to attend our reception and partake in “Stories of Hope” on Friday, April 4th, 2014 at the Castle Quarters. Tickets can be purchased at the GFF office or via our website at www.griffithfamilyfoundation.org We also invite you to be one of our featured sponsors of this incredible evening.
